

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Iraq Forum: The Mounting Costs of the U.S. Military Occupation of Iraq and Lost Opportunities

September 26, 2006
2:00- 4:00 P.M.
Room HC-6, The Capitol

Panel One:

Analysis of current conditions and realities on the ground in Iraq

- Dr. Paul Pillar, Professor of Security Studies at Georgetown University; served within the CIA for nearly 30
- Lt.Gen. William E. Odom, U.S. Army (Ret) , Senior Fellow with Hudson Institute and a professor at Yale University.

Panel Two:

Analysis and first-hand accounts of costs of the occupation of Iraq

Part I

- Ms.Chloe O'Gara, Director of Global Education Program for Save The Children.
- Ms. Anita Dancs, Research Director, National Priorities Project.

Part II

- Mr. Peter Laufer, author of Mission Rejected: U.S. Soldiers Who Say No to Iraq and several books on conflict and migration
- Sgt. Patrick Campbell, Congressional Liaison, Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America (IAVA)